Roman Choir To Sing

The Roman Choir, a choral group which includes singers from throughout the Torrance and South Bay areas, will appear in the special Christmas Concert Tuesday evening at Fashion Square Del Amo.

The concert is one of a series being presented by Bullock's during the holiday season. Nightly concerts are scheduled through Dec. 23.

The Roman Choir, organized under the direction of Roman Maciejewski, will appear at 8:15 p.m. The group will sing both popular and lesser known Christmas carols.

Maciejewski, choir director at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church in Hermosa Beach, first organized the Roman Choir in 1963. It has performed in a number of Southland concerts. The group has recorded a tribute to the late President John Kennedy known as "The Kennedy Song."

The choir from St. James Catholic Church in Redondo Beach will perform Wednesday evening at 7 p.m.

Concerts will be given at La Casita, the community clubhouse in the Fashion Square.

El Camino to Observe 'Bill of Rights Week'

"Bill of Rights Week" will be observed at El Camino College this week as students celebrate the founding of the national document.

The celebration began Friday with the campus newspaper, the Warhoop, devoting editorials and top news coverage to the event.

Yesterday, the Bill of Rights Committee headed by Gil Mueller and representatives of Circle K distributed 10,000 copies of the Bill of Rights at local shopping centers.

The campus cafeteria will be the site of the Inter-Club Council's Under-privileged Children's Christmas Party today. Santa Claus will be presenting candy to the children and the committee will distribute U.S. flags.

Following its meeting tomorrow, the Board of Trustees and Dr. Stuart E. Marsee, president of El Camino, will meet with the Bill of Rights Committee at a banquet in the campus Fireside Room where the week will be proclaimed officially.

Tuesday, a faculty forum will be presented titled "The Expanding Bill of Rights" with Dr. Albert Karr as moderator in the Campus Theater at 11 a.m.

Thursday, the final day of celebration, an assembly will be held on the Library lawn at 11 a.m. featuring Congressman Alfonso Bell (R-28th District) who will talk on the subject of Bill of Rights.

Torrance area youngsters will be given a chance to chat with Santa for three days this week as Roger Wright and Wright Anserfone conducts the ninth annual "Phone Santa" project in cooperation with many of the city's leading business, school and professional men.

Four phones manned in shifts by 25 men a day will answer all calls between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday on Santa's special phone, 320-1311.

Last year's Santas answered more than 4,000 calls, Wright recalled this week.

Volunteering for phone duty have been physicians, school principals, lawyers, store owners, insurance executives, and industrialists, Wright said.

The Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce will set up special phones the following week where children may call Santa between 6 and 8 p.m. on Dec. 19, 20, and 21. The Jaycees will open two phone numbers for the Santa callers, a spokesman said.
